SEINERS LAND MACKEREL AGAIN

EIGHT BOATS LANDED NEARLY 300,000 POUNDS OF
BLINKS TODAY.

Local seiners found good mackerel fishing yesterday, most of the fish being seined off of The Race in the afternoon. The fish are of the blink variety and found a ready local market for splitting, although some went to storage and a few were shipped. Fresh fish arrivals this morning were made up of the off-shore dragger Herbert Parker with 50,000 pounds of haddock for the General Seafoods Corporation, and three small shore boats. The Nova Scotian tug, MacHinery, arrived from the Provinces this morning with 150,000 pounds of salt fish on board for the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Company.

The pack by provinces was, Nova Scotia, 58,654 cases, of which Cape Breton Island produced 16,088; Prince that the pink oyster is pronounced wholesome, and bili-rubin, the coloring substance that causes the permanent blush on these bivalves, is declared to be harmless. New York health authorities are now starting a campaign to prevent selling too much water as oysters.

Salt Craft Wrecked.

Heavy seas have wrecked the salt-laden French three-masted sch. Grebe, out of Saint-Malo, which was stranded on Pointe Blanche, on the south coast, Wednesday night. The rescue of six of her crew was made through the heroic efforts of a harbor pilot, Pierre Gervain and his assistant Dominique Sarrazola. The other member of the crew swam ashore.

While scores of spectators stood on shore, Gervain and Sarrazola brought their dory near the wrecked schooner. After a long wait for favorable conditions they got aboard the Grebe by riding on several huge waves which broke over the craft and took off the crew.
